Instructions:

- 1. Read the passage again
- 2. Notice the different instances of how people respond to Jesus in the passage and how He is treated.
- 3. Answer the following questions:
- How do the different people or groups treat and respond to Jesus? What does this tell you about Jesus' ministry?

 What does this tell you about how others will likely respond to you as a representative of Jesus and His family? What do you think you should expect? How does that make you feel?

 How do you believe that Jesus has called you to represent Him and serve alongside Him in His ministry? What specific places or people do you think Jesus has called you to serve and how has He called you to serve them?
